

David Klinkenberg

I hope this finds you well. I want to share a unique booking opportunity with you, regarding an artist that we represent. David Klinkenberg is a rising, new artist in Christian music. He was recently on Jim Brickman's 2007 Holiday Homecoming Tour, and wowed audiences around the country with his tenacity and incredible musical ability. He has also been out on the David's latest CD, "Legacy: Hymns of Our Heritage" released in September 2007. Ministry through music, is important to David, and he would love the opportunity to minister through worship and special music, as a part of your regularly scheduled weekend services or in the context of a special event/concert.

That said, please check out the information below, and let me know if you are interested in bringing David Klinkenberg to your church or event. Thanks for taking the time to consider partnering in ministry together! If you have any questions, let me know.

Thanks!

"An incredible blessing to all churches he visits. David is the "real deal". His charisma on stage and his musical skills are not the only things we appreciate about David. We are blessed by his "behind the scenes" attitude and servant's heart. David is truly a pleasure to minister along-side."

~ Jason Ritchie, Assistant Pastor of Music & Worship - Crossroads Community Church

"Intense emotion and superb musicianship...these qualities come through whether David is performing alone or as part of an ensemble. I have loved listening to and playing with David. His artistry is an inspiration to all."

~ Ken Hickman, Music Director – Sunset Presbyterian Church

"David can add greatly to any event, from a worship service to a major conference. He adds a youthful enthusiasm that is simply contagious."

~Scott Fairclough – Award winning songwriter for Maranatha Praise

“People from all ages and backgrounds respond enthusiastically to David’s talent. They love to hear him play. David is a great musician with a generous spirit and warm heart to match. I’m always thrilled and inspired when David plays at our events.”

~ Bas Vanderzalm, President - Northwest Medical Team International, Inc.

“David’s music is delightful, inspiring, and worshipful. Our two worship services have contrasting styles, but David was effective in each service. He didn’t just perform a solo or mini-concert; he became a part of our two worship teams. He did this in a way that enhanced our music rather than calling attention to himself. Remarkably, David was well received by all age groups – from our oldest to our youngest, and everyone in between!”

~ Norm Langston, Senior Pastor – Beaverton First Baptist Church

"David plays with such passion and tenderness that he invites his audience into his experience, and somehow we feel as though we have not only observed his talent, but participated in it."

~ Chris & Jenifer Manginelli, Lead Pastors, Mill Creek Foursquare Church

“David was a pleasure to work with, talented but humble, professional yet warm, great music and super interview.”

~ Myles Holmes, Total Christian Television World Network
